Dear Mr. Mitnick:

I want to thank you for your presentation at the National Symposium on Cyber Crime sponsored by the U.S. Pretrial Services agency, Central District of California, and the Federal Probation and Pretrial Officers Association (FPPOA). This symposium, which was held in Long Beach, California from February 11 through February 14, 2008, was the first federal conference to address this subject for Pretrial and Probation officers.

An informal sampling of remarks obtained from the attendees felt that your talk was insightful and extremely informative. Many felt you were able to make a significant connection with the audience that contributed to the presentation of the subject matter. One person even called you "a legend" in the field.

What I and many others appreciated was your professionalism, expertise, and even your willingness to discuss past legal problems. Your presentation was an integral part of the conference and you certainly met our expectations.

I am enclosing two DVD copies of your presentation. Please let me know if you wish to have additional copies.
